PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Graduation from high school is a great accomplishment for most high school students; it is the culmination of 12 years of public school work. Most graduates have developed greatly in their knowledge, skills, and personal qualities. If you are one of these, you are ready for advanced steps in other fields—on a job, in a trade, in technical school or college, or in a home.

My message is that, while each of you will have opportunity in the future to achieve great things, if you fail to live up to these opportunities as they come, there will be fewer and fewer chances for the worthwhile things of life.

Only by seizing each chance for success and using it to the best of your ability, will other opportunities continue to be available. In other words, keep busy in your career. It need never be finished as long as life remains.

Dr. Alfred E. Baker

MISS IRENE BALL, Dean of Girls

Wm. H. MacMaster MR. WILLIAM H. MACMASTER, Dean of Boys

DEDICATION

"You are the most important persons in the world. The future lies in your hands. What are you going to do with it? It's up to you—you, you, and you."

These are phrases which have become very familiar during our past three years at Castlemont. We have heard them time and time again—in assemblies, classrooms, and the Vice-Principal's office.

Who said them? A person who has served us at Castlemont as Dean of Boys and Vice-Principal—Mr. William H. MacMaster, or as we have known him, Mac.

If we got in trouble and didn't know right from wrong, we could always count on some level headed guidance from Mac—after a thorough raking over the coals, that is!

If we met temptation, and the urge was very strong, Mac also served us as a counselor in times of stress. By setting an example for all of us to follow, he displayed a way of certainty towards the truth.

We all took the straight and narrow path, but if we would start to slide—Mac remained the one link that would always bring us back to truth and realization.

If in doubt about college—Mac was always there to assist us in planning for the future. He always had a ready supply of college information available to us that were interested.

If unsure about school activities—Mac always saw to it that we were straightened out about this. We'll all remember the way in which he emphasized the importance of good grades, and the participation in school activities.

We, the Graduating Classes of 1956, dedicate this book to William H. MacMaster.

OUR LEADERS

Student government is one of the important factors in building character at Castlemont. In the Fall of 1955, our officers were: Claudia Talbert, Phil Benicasa, and Libby Hyman. During the Spring of 1956, the officers were: Gloria Thompson, Jerry Snyder, and Lois Hedgecoe. While directing the affairs of the student body, these officers were also active in the leadership class.

MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS

Our three years at Castlemont High School were climaxed by the memorable and wonderful Senior Activities. The first of these was our L-12 Parents' Night. During this evening our parents had an opportunity to visit the school in order to become acquainted with our teachers and counselors. They talked about us and the graduation expenses they would help us meet during our H-12 semester.

Next we helped the High Seniors before us with their Senior Dinner, as the L-12 class would help us in turn. Towards the end of that same semester we put on the traditional L-12 Flower Sale in an attempt to raise vast amounts of money to counteract the expenses of senior assessments.

The beginning of our last, and best, term was inaugurated with the Senior Picnic during which it has become traditional to welcome April showers of some sort. The seniors of countless graduating classes have been seen running around with drenched costumes which never seem to restrict the dancing, riding of amusement concessions, or the competitions in the various contests.

The feasting phase of our senior year was held during the Senior Dinner. The food is always delicious, but for us, it seemed extra nice. The dinner was held in the school cafeteria as usual, and we were pleased to notice the attentions of the starry-eyed underclassmen who acted as waitresses.

The Senior Assembly which is put on by the senior class, and brings out all the fine talents of the class, was presented for the Student Body. To climax this assembly, awards are given to outstanding students in the senior class.

Then, at last, the Senior Ball! The girls looked as if they all just came out of Magnin's showrooms, and the boys looked as handsome as any movie star hero. We danced and danced, till dawn came, and then we went over to the breakfast which was prepared by our P.T.A. Then home for a nice long rest.

The Sunday afternoon before graduation, we had the traditional Baccalaureate Service at which we were presented with an inspirational service and music which we will not forget for a long time.

The Night has finally come for us—Graduation.

This is the night when many of us will separate and go our own ways. Many are planning to continue school; others will go out and work, and many others will be joining some branch of the Armed Forces. Always, wherever we go, we will know that the Memories of Castlemont were made of this. . . .

Phil -

Today I would like to pay tribute to an unforgettable person. You, Phil, you have gone down in Castlemont history as an outstanding student, leader, personality, dancer, and worker!

Your contribution in serving Castlemont was one of highest caliber and efficiency.

I am anxious to see your accomplishments in the future. I know your judgement will be wise and the results, unlimited!!

Success and opportunity is yours Phil, for the asking along with a considerable amount of elbow-grease.

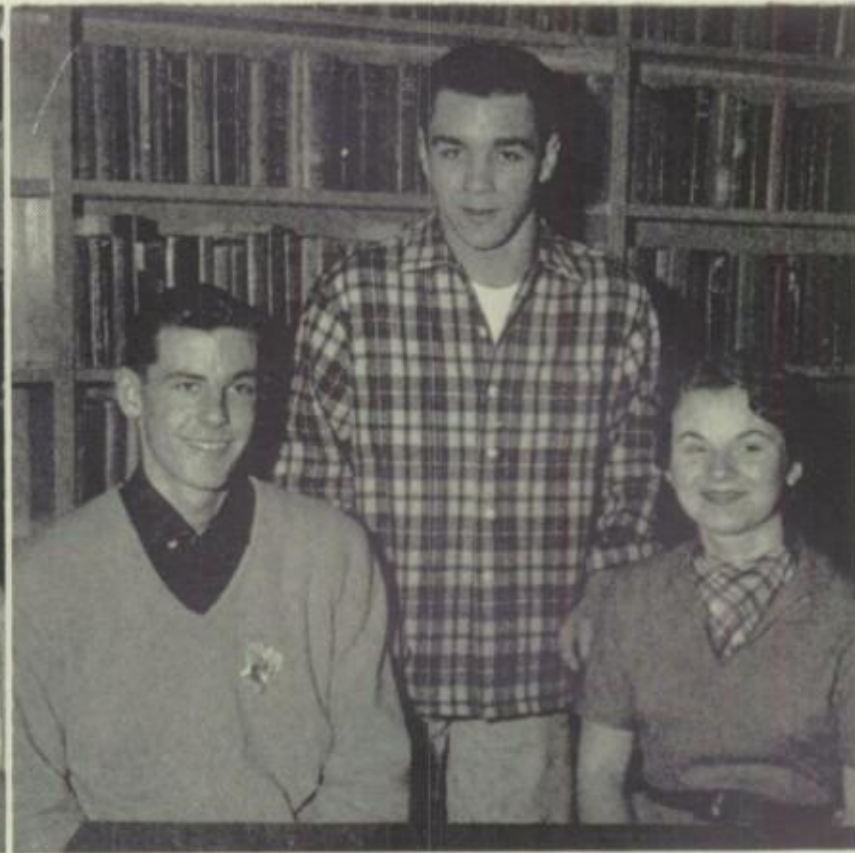

Best of luck and, above all, happiness & self-satisfaction to you.

I remain your devoted friend,
Gaye Smith

Phil:
Will dear
little neighbor,
it's about time
we see each other again, without one
of us washing cars.
I don't know what else to say except good luck with your job, and I'll see you around.
Even if it is just washing cars, or passing each other on the street.
Love,
Judy Beery

Best of luck

Phil -
HERE'S TO A GREAT GUY WHO
I'VE KNOWN FOR SOME TIME
BUT DON'T SEE MUCH ANYMORE.
I HOPE WE'LL ALWAYS KEEP OUR FRIENDSHIP - YOU'RE THE KIND OF GUY A PERSON JUST CAN'T FORGET. GOOD LUCK
ALWAYS AND GO OUTSIDE.

Al Walling

Hi Phil - I must say I've really, really, really really, really, really enjoyed knowing you - How could anyone help it with that wonderful terrific personality!
really a terrific guy - You be advice I won't say
god luck at wherever you go!
Love

That I found a corresponding space to an excerpt written for you by one Gae Smith.
We editors have to stick together you know. Similarly we "luddishakers" have to and will stay together. Few realize what is involved in operating an organization of this level. You probably do know since you have just completed a term of office. I could write scores of lines praising you or complimenting you as a personality or as a leader. I've developed a talent for that but I haven't developed a talent for saving those lines to a bare minimum, for I'm sure that a bare minimum in itself may require the use of all available space in this book. But I must be kind in reserving space for others to express their feelings. Obviously your book will not hold enough of their wishes to satisfy them. Well, it seems that all great men are never praised enough or are never repaid for their service. Therefore I won't attempt to express my feelings.
People as close as we really need not. Just thank you for seeing you.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

At Castlemont we have more than forty clubs, formed to meet the interests of almost every student. There are service clubs, hobby and interest clubs, clubs for careers, and those connected with the Y.

Each of our clubs serves the school and the community in some way. This service is usually done through a term project. To serve the school, a club may do anything from painting the garbage cans to binding library books. Some clubs serve the community by such projects as giving toys to an orphanage, contributing to drives, or helping needy families.

Our clubs are very active and are a very important part of school life. Some of their campus activities include swimming parties, joint meetings with other clubs, tours and excursions, skating parties, and many other things. Among the outstanding activities of this past school year were Block C's dance, "Sportsmen's Paradise"; Big Brothers' and Big Sisters' semiannual Jinx Jamborees; Chevrons' first movie for the student body; Aquadettes' annual water show; and L.H.G.'s "Come As You Are" breakfast.

Well, Phil, #1 this late date in life / think we both have a similar outlook
on life - I'm sure that #1 some later
date - after college
perhaps - we will both have different outlooks on life and will no doubt hate
each other

O.A.L. WRESTLING CHAMPIONS

Castlemont's wrestlers retained their O.A.L. crown by taking the all-O.A.L. school meet before a crowd of 700 at the Castlemont gym Thursday, January 19. Paul Chappelle's victorious Knight matmen copped eight individual O.A.L. titles while racking up 79 points in the final as compared to 57 for second place Fremont. Oakland finished third with 25, trailed by Tech with 23, and San Leandro with 9.

The 1956 Knight champs are Jim Marion, 105 class; Jim and Joe Solis, 122; Frank Maruyama, 129; Bill Peoples, 156; John Perez, 167; John Marshall, 177; and Eugene Miranda, 212.

There wasn't a single pin in the 12 championship matches. Brothers Jim and Joe Solis of Castlemont shared the 122-pound crown and their match ended in a 2-2 draw. Both boys were undefeated for the season. Joe was the defending champ.

Knight 105-pounders also made a clean sweep of their weight class. Jim Marion defeated teammate

Bobby Joe for the title by a score of 17-14. Marion earned his way into the finals by pinning Oakland's McDonald while Joe decisioned Tavernier of Fremont.

Bill Peoples took first place honors in the 156-pound class as he defeated Bob Stone of Fremont by a 4-0 score. Bill ended undefeated for the season. Last year, Bill was second in the O.A.L. behind Tom Bullock of Castlemont.

Two Castlemont matmen met in the 167-pound final bout. John Perez topped Nathan Lencioni by the score of 3-1. Both are seniors and ended their wrestling at the top.

In one of the hardest fought matches of the evening, Knight John Marshall defeated defending champ Art Martinea of Fremont in the 177-pound bout. The score for the match was 8-3.

Eugene Maranda turned back Jim Migliardi of Fremont for another Knight victory in the 212-pound final match.

SABER CLUB

CASTLEMONT'S R.O.T.C.

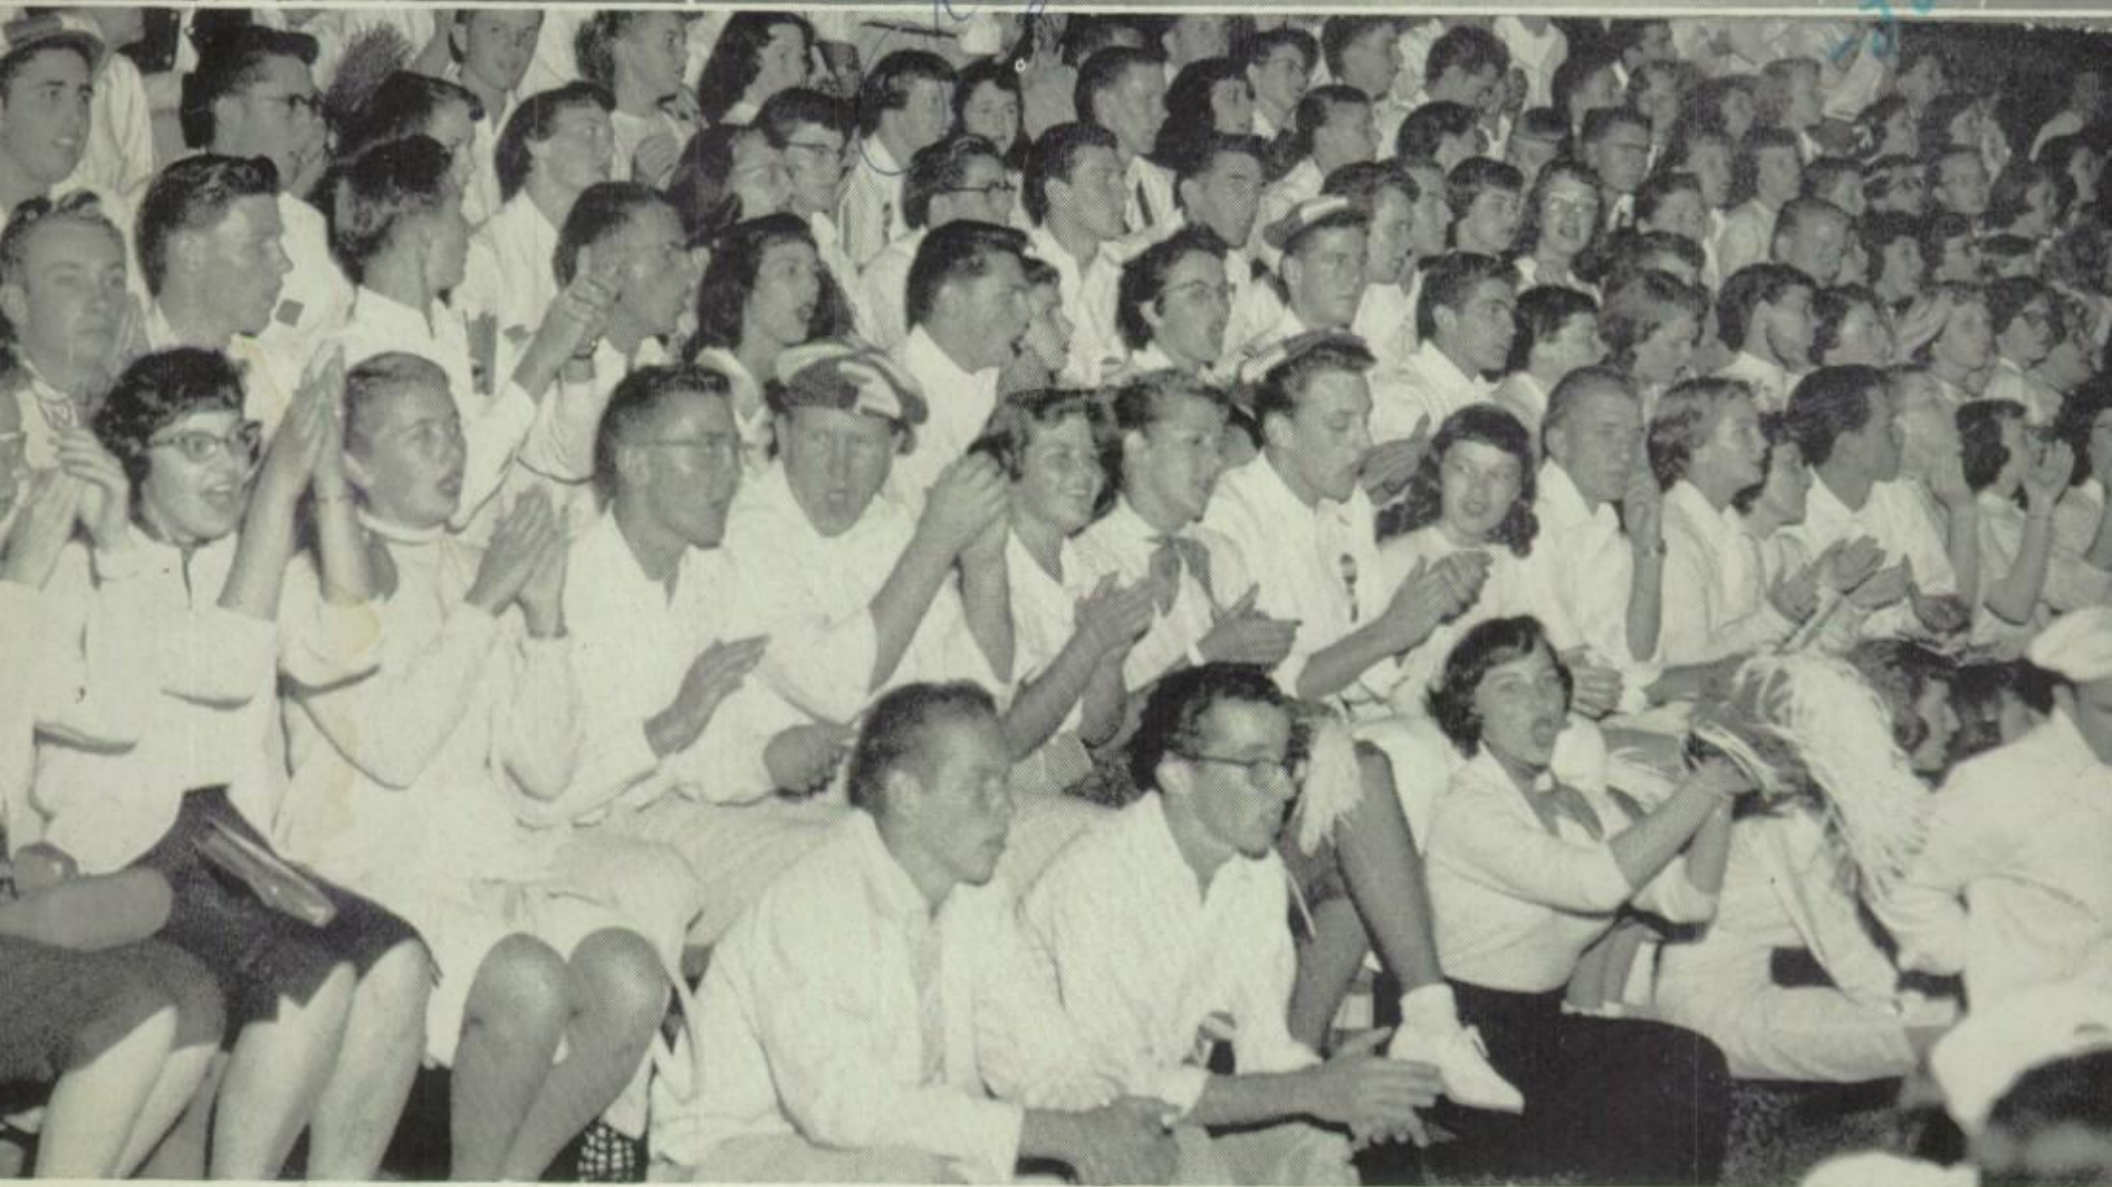

The Reserve Officers Training Corps of Castlemont has won many honors and trophies. They have achieved the honor of holding sweepstakes prize of the Spring R.O.T.C. Competition at the Oakland Auditorium in the years of 1953, 1954, and 1955.

In the Veterans' Day Parade in November of 1955, the R.O.T.C. won the trophy for best battalion. In the years of 1954, 1955, and 1956, Castlemont was named the best marching unit. In 1956 our R.O.T.C. was selected as honor school in Oakland.

There are two clubs formed within the battalion ranks. These clubs are Saber, the commissioned officers' club, and Chevron, the noncommissioned officers' club. The Rifle Team is a specialized unit within the battalion which has been associated with the winning of championship matches.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Ye Falcon is a student publication, edited by the students for students. Its purpose is to record the outstanding events of the year, to preserve lasting memories of high school life, and to contribute to the building of a better future for the years ahead.

As a learning endeavor, mistakes are bound to occur, but on these mistakes rests the hope of learning new techniques and procedures which will be constantly utilized in other projects of a similar nature.

It was said, "An American editor worries his hair gray to see that no mistakes appear on the pages of his magazine. The Chinese editor is wiser than that. He wants to leave his readers the supreme satisfaction of discovering a few mistakes for themselves."

The 1956 Ye Falcon represents the diligent efforts of many students working together on a common enterprise. We therefore, as members on the 1956 Falcon staff, wish to express our appreciation to the following people who have made the publication of this book possible: Mr. Cliff Barbera and the staff of the Cliff Barbera Studios; Mr. Robert Ozias, and the staff of Lederer, Street and Zeus Printing Co.; Mr. McClay and the staff of Color Plates Engraving Co.; the Cardoza Bookbinding Company; Dr. Baker and Miss Ball for administrative help; Mrs. Biggs and Mrs. Gardiner for general assistance; Mr. Gaertner and the Poster Committee; Mr. Darling and the Drama II Class; and the Crier staff.

At this time also, we would like to thank our advisor, Mr. Robert E. Palazzi, for the help and guidance he has given us in the production of this book.

THE FALCON STAFF OF 1956

*The Future Belongs to you Phil.

Dear Phil:

Well, I guess this is the last year with the signing year books.
May I say I have enjoyed our friendship very dearly and I will always remember the good times we've had together on double dates. I'll never forget our bicycle ride in the park.

May you find success & happiness always. There's no better half to another. I remain always —

Your friend,
